Application for Admission

MS-Traditional Chinese Veterinary Medicine

Veterinarians and current veterinary students, who have completed at least a minimum of 10 credit hours at a college of veterinary medicine, are eligible to apply to the MS-TCVM. Applicants to the MS-TCVM program must provide the following documents:

1. Official transcripts of your earned Doctor of Veterinary Medicine (DVM) or equivalent, or official transcripts of your earned bachelor's degree and a copy of your current veterinary school identification; Veterinary students must also submit their veterinary school official transcripts as proof of enrollment;
2. One letter of recommendation from a former professor, peer, or employer;
3. Copy of your driver's license (or passport).
4. The completed application form;
5. $70 required application fee and $50 program registration fee

International Applicants must also submit the following:

Prospective students whose native language is not English and have not earned a degree from an appropriately accredited institution where English is the principle language of instruction must demonstrate English proficiency by submitting one of the following:

- Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL), minimum score: 530 (paper-based) or 71 (internet based) OR;
- International English Language Test (IELTS), minimum score: 6.5 OR;
- Pearson Test of English Academic Score Report, minimum score 50

In addition, if your university can not provide official transcripts in English, you must have your transcripts evaluated and/or translated by a NACES recognized third party organization. Please see NACES.org for a complete list of approved organizations.

International applicants may be exempt* from the above if:

- 1) the applicant has earned a bachelor's degree or higher from an institution in an English-speaking country, or
- 2) if the applicant is a citizen of an English-speaking country.

*Please contact the student administration office to verify qualifications for exemption
